Drink on its own or with our excellent cheeseboard

Dow's Fine White Port

One of the youngest of all the Dow's wood-aged Ports, having been aged on average 3 years in oak casks. Golden colour with an intense, rich, nutty, aromatic complexity. A certain amount of wine is not wood-aged and is blended in to add freshness and fruit character. It is subtly sweet, smooth and well balanced with excellent acidity and a delicious lingering quality. Serve well chilled!

 375ml £12.50
100ml £4.75

Graham's Six Grapes

Six Grapes is a big-hearted wine, sourced from the same vineyards that contribute to Graham's famed Vintage Ports. It closely resembles a young Graham's Vintage Port in style: full-bodied, with rich black fruit on the palate, and fragrant blackberry aromas.

 375ml £15.00
100ml £5.75

Graham's 10 Year Old Tawny Port

Matured for an average of 7 to 9 years in seasoned oak casks, on the nose this fine example of tawny Port shows complex nutty aromas combined with hints of honey and figs. On the palate, rich mature fruit flavours, beautifully mellowed with a luscious long finish.

 375ml £20.00

Quinta dos Malvedos Vintage Port

Expressive floral characteristics and opulent blackberry fruit flavours. It is usually more approachable at a younger age than classic Vintage Port. Malvedos Vintage Ports are bottled without filtration and so will continue to age like a classic Vintage Port and therefore require decanting.
